Chris:

Did you mean October 30, 2012, that was what we asked for in the letter?

Sincerely,
Damian Walter

Good Afternoon Damian:

I received the September 20, 2012 letter and the September 13, 2012 email requesting additional time for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (Corps) and U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS) to submit their annual status report (Report) describing compliance with Dworshak's NFH's Federal Facility Compliance Agreement (FFCA).

The Corps and FWS can have an extension until September 30, 2012 to provide the annual status report, in recognition of the emergency transfer of fish from the Clearwater Hatchery. I believe the modifications to System III water treatment described in a September 11, 2012 letter to me from Jill Olson of FWS also support an extension since these recent activities are significant enough to be included in the Report.

I look forward to discussing the System III water treatment modifications with you at Dworshak National Fish Hatchery next week. Please contact me if you have any questions.
